

“COMBAT READY” FIREFIGHTING

8-HOUR CLASS ON KEEPING YOUR HEAD IN THE GAME FILLED WITH FIREGROUND-PROVEN TIPS & TECHNIQUES

INTERACTIVE multi-media presentation on the IMPLICATIONS of complacency in the fire service and the IMPACT you can have on it.

Firefighting is a "team sport" where we all count on each other to be ready when the moment comes. Firefighters often think they are "ready". The scenarios discussed in this presentation will focus on the instructor's personal experiences at several near-miss fireground incidents showing how the presence or absence of a "combat ready" mindset positively or negatively influenced the outcome. Discussion and tips to include:

- DEVELOPING A “COMBAT READY” ATTITUDE
- DESTROYING COMPLACENCY
- SETUP, LAYOUT, AND USE OF PPE
- THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING “IN POSITION”
- “COMBAT READY” FIREFIGHTING SKILLS
- EFFECTIVE ENGINE & TRUCK COMPANY SETUPS
- PLANNING AND EQUIPMENT FOR RIT DEPLOYMENT
- PRE-INCIDENT PREPARATION FOR IC'S

INSTRUCTED BY NICK MARTIN

BATTALION CHIEF OF TRAINING
COLUMBIA FIRE DEPARTMENT

A 19 year veteran, Nick previously served as a lieutenant with the Washington, DC fire department. Nick is an FDIC HOT instructor and author for Fire Engineering Magazine.

A complacent attitude is the first step in a tragic calamity of errors that results in a fire extending beyond where it should have been controlled or preventable civilian or firefighter injuries and deaths.

Traditions Training LLC, is a cutting edge training group that delivers "high intensity programs with real world solutions" that meet the needs of the modern day firefighter and fire department. Our highly experienced, trained and motivated instructors come from some of the busiest and most respected fire departments in the country. Utilizing a modern day approach to fireground-proven tactics and sound "real world" strategies on fireground operations, our instructors provide an exciting, non-traditional training experience...